

Taylor Porter

Helping insurance policyholders fight for the coverage they are entitled to is the focus of Taylor Porter's practice. As an associate at Shernoff Bidart Echeverria LLP, Mr. Porter's diverse litigation experience provides valuable support and insight for successful insurance bad-faith claims.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Porter gained valuable litigation experience working as an associate and a law clerk at two law firms. He handled a variety of litigation work product, including drafting pleadings, discovery requests and responses, and other motions. The litigation matters he worked on include construction, employment discrimination, wage and hour, and business disputes, as well as personal injury defense.

While earning his law degree at Pepperdine University Caruso School of Law, Mr. Porter served as a research assistant, researching and drafting a moot court problem for the Armand Arabian Moot Court Competition. He also worked as a legal research and writing teaching assistant helping international students pursuing their legal master's degrees with legal research and writing. In addition, Mr. Porter served as a Pepperdine Law Review Editorial Board member and vice president of the J. Reuben Clark Society.

Fluent in Spanish, Mr. Porter spent two years in Sinaloa, Mexico on a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. He is a Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and Arizona Cardinals fan. When not in the office, he enjoys spending time with his wife and kids.

EDUCATION

- Pepperdine University Caruso School of Law, J.D., cum laude
- Southern Utah University, B.S., Political Science, magna cum laude, Dean's List, Student of the Year for the Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice

BAR ADMISSIONS

- California

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Insurance Bad Faith